

successful AGING

CONFERENCE

► Dementia edition

The Language of Distress

Distressed behaviors serve as a form of communication and often indicate the person is experiencing discomfort in body, mind and/or spirit. They express unmet needs. Dr. Gallagher will share how to use a 'soft approach' and sensory strategies to maximize comfort and connection.

Maribeth Gallagher, DNP, FAAN
Hospice of the Valley

Connecting with Our Care Partner

Partnering with our loved ones and clients to accomplish tasks based on their capabilities instead of their limitations can facilitate a positive outcome. Learning the how's and why's of this positive approach to care can breathe new life into daily interactions and engagement.

Elaine Poker-Yount, CDP
Visiting Angels East Valley

Self Care IS the Answer

Having your health and well-being intact is crucial on this dementia journey. Joan will share techniques and practices to support your welfare, as well as offer tips and tools to help bring contentedness to those living with dementia.

Joan Marlow, Life Coach, Reiki Master
Peaceful Easy Healing

Navigating the Long-Term Care and Estate Planning Rapids

Steering through the rough waters of long-term care planning is intimidating. Lora will show how to avoid the most common mistakes people make by clarifying concerns pertaining to ALTCS & Miller Trusts, Wills & Trusts, and Veterans Pension Aid & Attendance. With the right information your estate plans can be smooth sailing.

Lora G. Johnson, Elder Law Attorney
Johnson & Associates Law Firm
